

HW 5 : PN patches

Implement PN patches. Make up a data set of about 20 triangles. Compare the PN patch to the cubic Hermite one. Display each cubic patch by breaking it down into a grid of small mini-triangles and computing the normal for each mini-triangle vertex from the quadratic PN normals.

You might want to check out the function `VertexNormals`.