G. Farin

Homework Assignment #2

due: 3-7

1. In class the following conjecture was made: If a rational quadratic is a parabola, then its denominator will always have exactly one real zero, even after reparametrization with an arbitrary constant c. True or false?

2. Given an arbitrary rational quadratic (not necessarily in standard form), explain how to determine the type of conic it represents.